

Premium Income Fund

NSX Release: 21 October 2011

Appointment of new Auditor

Wellington Capital Limited as responsible entity of the Premium Income Fund advises that Johnston Rorke has consented to be the scheme auditor of the Premium Income Fund.

Pricewaterhouse Coopers have resigned as auditor from the Premium Income Fund and the Wholesale Premium Income Fund. The appointment of Johnston Rorke remains subject to regulatory approval.

Johnston Rorke was established in 1974 and is a large accounting firm with sixteen partners and over 120 staff. Their audit client base includes publicly listed and large private companies, managed investment schemes, government organisations, and investment funds covering a number of industries, including property investing, mining, logistics, and information technology industries.

Johnston Rorke's Audit & Assurance Partner team combined have over 80 years experience in auditing and related services. They have a high level of Partner involvement, allowing clients direct access to their Partner's knowledge and depth of experience.

Johnston Rorke are members of the Pitcher Partners Association of independent firms in Australia and independent members of Baker Tilly International.

For further information please contact:

Jenny Hutson
Managing Director
Wellington Capital Limited
as responsible entity of the Premium Income Fund
ACN 114 248 458 AFSL 291 562

Phone: 1300 854 885
Email: investorrelations@newpif.com.au

